THE SUCREBIES.

The second report of Sir William Willoocks on the situation of the Secretics Company from the agricultural point of view is of painfail interest to the Egyptian public, which, till the first remorars of a creat, had obstituately refused to criticise or even to think of questioning the excellence of the company's management of its estate in Upper Egypt. In future, we keps, the would-be shareholder (we do not reserve to the speculative buyer) will take a little more trouble to acquaint himself with the sorted working of the undertakings in which he wishes to inwest; the information is generally proceased with very little trouble, though cases can easily be imagined in which it has to be taken with a grain or two of salt. Sir,—In the "Bourse Expitience" of the 19th inst, repeated in the "There of Alexandrie" of the 20th inst, under the heading "Sulletin de la Bosres," a movement is said to be advocated by a Cairo firm of brokers and a certain number of local shareholders of the above company, with a view to suppress the London board of administration, and to substitute an Expirian board of directors to take over the entire management of the sifiars of the company, on the supposed grounds of continued friction between the present London and Cairo board. I beg to state that this agistation against the Chairman and London board of directors does not ensure the present London and Cairo board. I beg to state that this agistation against the Chairman and London board of directors does not ensurable from the local board, as such, whose sole members are Mr. Lonadorfer, Mr. Hooker (earmagaing director), and my-self. My colleague, Mr. Lonadorfer, has been absent in Europe since the early days of September, and does not return to Egypt till the 7th November, whilst I personally am a strong supporter of the London board in all their actions.—Yours faithfully.

NELSON SUNDAY.

SERVICE AT ST. MARK'S.

A special service was held at St. Mark's Church, Alexandria, yesterday, and a trophy, and inscription, simple and in excellent taste, designed by Rear-Admiral Sir Massie Blomafield, were erected for the occasion. It consisted of the fanous signal "England appoint, sto." below which which came the great admiral's dying words, "For God and, my boostry," and the name Horatio Nelson in white letters on red. In the porth was hung a notice on which appeared Nelson's portrait and an exact reproduction in the international code colors of his Trafalgar signal, with an appeal from the committee of the Nelson Contensy's Memorial Fund appended. Special hymns were sung for the consuming and the Raw. R. Wormsill adapted appropriate words to Sir Attur Sallivan's well-known Jobiles hymn, Ob, King of Kings, whose reign of old."

DRUSES AND BEDOUINS.

A letter which has reached us from Syris A letter which has rescued a shows that the stories of a general conflict between Bedouins and Druses in the Hauran have shows that the stories of a general conflict between Bedoins and Drases in the Hauran have been much exagenated. It appears that a Drase caravan, while returning to the Hauran from Damascos some six weeks ago, was attacked by a gang of Bedonian, and loot two men and most of its camels. On the news reaching the Hauran 500 Drase cavaliers decided to make reprisals. Riding some days over desolute country in the east of the Hauran, they surprised the offending tribe and took 700 camels. Two hondred of the raiders returned with their spoil, the remainder, unsatisfied with their pool, the remainder, unsatisfied with their spoil, the remainder, unsatisfied with their book, 700 and captured some cattle, only to find themselves face to face with an overshelming force of Bedonian who had gathered to repost the attack. Hasvily catnumbered, the hondred Drases had to retire after two days fighting, losing twenty men and as many horses.

Among the fallen notables were the nor a of Shielk Seline Altraha and of Shielk Seline Altraha and of Shielk Seline Hadron and as many horses.

This afternoon Port Said, Saturday.

This afternoon Port Said opened their football season with a practice match with the natives. They were short of a faw players, but managed to raise a full sam. The following represented Port Said :—equal, P. Bod; back, Wallis (capt.) and Williams; half backs, King, Jones, and doodwin; forward, Flower, Ghorman, Ingram, Gunnery and Jary. In the first half-Port Said were decidedly the better elevan, and it was marvellous on many consaions how the matrix goal engaged downfall. For full 30 minutes they hapt their opponents in their 55 lines, and it was only the vary fines play of the backs and goalkooper which prevents them scoring. Towards that each and start for the said from the first ball the native goal away with a rank, and after some pipendid passing the ball found the net. but whether it was a native or King, (the Fort Said half-Said) who actually scored, it is hard to say, but it ortainly was no fault of the goalkooper. THE CENTRAL EGYPT EXPLORATION COMPANY, LD.

INTERESTING SPEECH BY MR ALFORD ON GOLD MINING IN EGYPT.

The third ordinary general meeting of the sharsholders of the Central Egypt Exploration Company (Limited) was held on the 12th October at Winchester House, Old Broad-street, London, E.C., under the presidency of Mr. Tyudale White, the chairman of the

The Secretary (Mr. E. S. G. Malins) having

The Secretary (Mr. E. S. G. Malins) having road the notice convening the mreting and the report of the anditors, the Chairman said:
"Ladies and Gentlemen:—I shall not detain you very long, as Mr. Alford, hay look lead on the board of the company, who is also our seprintending engineer, and to whose foresight the re-discovery of the Egyptian Gold-fields is doe, will self you all habout our work in Egypt and surplain things much better than I should.

In largy the control of the control should.
"I should like, however, to say that, although om has, of which most sanguine hopes.

"I will not take up your time now by discussing the Bridia and Semna mines, which when the Bridia and Suma mines, which, with your mine of Atalha, form what we may call the Keach group. There are others which may later on be brought into this circle of operations, but these three, which are now being actively developed, form the centre of present interest. A diagram of your Atalhah mine hangs on the wall, and, leat we altogether forget at which of the cumpanies. forget at which of the cumpules' meetings we are now attending, I will describe this mine as a type of the others, which it much resembles."

as a type of the others, which it most re-sembles."
(Here Mr. Alford described the Atallah Mine with the aid of the diagram, and then continoed.)
"You see that we have in this mine some very rich and extensive zones of rock. Now all the interest contres in getting the have and the seed of the seed of the seed of the have already to pred and which I have just described. Probably there will not be much of interest to report whilst that work is going on; though the wines on the vein from the 260t lavel will set wines on the vein from the 260t lavel will tell us the size and value of the vein as we go down ns the size and value of the vein as we go down

Government, and these working capitals, greated by the overlet flower of these absidiary companies that of the work of these absidiary companies the Patrix, Seams, Ridia, and Ataliah Mines have been published monthly in the daily papers, and are conceiled given in used to the Egyptian Government, by all manner of person, which were met by the my canner of the three solutions of the proposed graves of the company. Here, again, must ask parlow for following the somewhat must also parlow for the work of the covery of these mines in 1899 led to no-merous applications for prospecting rights being made to the Egyptian Government, by all manner of persons, which were met by the, granting of large prospecting areas on the distinct understanding that the concession-hairse should explore the ground at their own cost, not seeking to gain an immediate profit from the fact of having obtained a concession, and when payable mines were found abould then take out mining leases on specific terms and form mining companies brief for the Egyptian Government, which has in several instances gone its own way to its own detriment, but I do maintain that, generally, its regulations dealing with these smining matters are the best that, under the circumstances, could be devised. Its discretion of concessionaires, and more treat shown in those who might have proved fifting aids to a Government footfronted with a new situation, Egyptian mining would have stood in a much more prominent and important position before the public than it stands to day. "That prospecting areas should not be sublet or cut up, at least until the original holder has spent a considerable sum of money on exploration work, is, as I said before, a most sultary condition. It to do to prevent that under inflation of only it, as I said before, a most sultary condition. It to do to prevent that under inflation of only it, as I said before, a most sultary condition. It to do to prevent that under inflation of only it which paralyses so many mining ventures in other lends. Another regulation was been developed to the substantial of its normal contracts in other lends. Another regulation radio by the Egyptian Government is that no mining company should be formed having a shearched working capital of less than one-third of its nominal capital. This is also a most excellent regulation; they be Egyptian Government in the sum of the contract of the con

"My mining life has been a long one. I have made failures, and I have made accesses, and I mean to crown it with the success of Egyptian mining. So far I feel that I have been ploughten absolute forrow, but I have put my hand ing a lonely forrow, but I have put my has to the plough, and shall not look back."

ALEXANDRIA SPORTING CLUB.

OCTOBER SKYR MEETING.

The October Skye Mesting of the AS.O.

was a distinct disappointment. Perhaps the other porting event in the harbour had one thing to do with the meagre attendance; any way the grandsand bors a very described appearance, and there was an almost total absence of animation. The racing did not present any particular feature of interest. The recent rain had spoiled the course for racing, having made the ground at places slippery and at others sitely, dood ranning was therefore out of the question i the only race in which anything like fast time was made was the Mehmondiele Pitst, in which Louisou upset the calculations of backers by romping in an easy winner.
Most of the look of the day went to Khalil Pashs Rayar, whose fine stable claimed five of the six events. The absence of lahak Bey Hassein's mounts, which have been moved to Cairo for Beyram, was noticeable.

The weather on Startoay was delightful,
and the events were got through in good time.
Owing to the departure of the band of the R.
Berkz Regiment, the Ryptian Army band discoursed a choice selection of masic, which was greatly appreciated. The following are the particulars of the various events:—
